Namoboudha day hiking, tour of Namoboudha.

The Namoboudha monastery is about 40 km away from Kathmandu, and after reaching there, travelers are surprised by the immense beauty it possesses. The environment is immaculate with lush greenery terrace everywhere, majestic blue sky and then the mighty Himalayas in the background. Ancient history dictates that a prince once sacrificed himself to feed a hungry Tigress. From his remains, a temple was built which then later transformed into the current day Namobuddha may mean new Buddha. Enjoy your hike around Kathmandu valley vista as you meditate in the tranquil environment with the winds gently blowing at your face and the sound of fluttering prayer flags with the mixture of Buddhist chants.

This one day trip - a day hiking to Namoboudha can be arranged as per your wish. Just give us a call 9851017772 and we will arrange it.

Itinerary

Day 1

Namoboudha day hiking

Namoboudha is situated at the hill top of Panauti and is a very important Buddhist pilgrimage located in Kavre District about 38 kilometers, east of Kathmandu valley. The stupa and shrines build on this hill has significantly made marks and is an ancient holy site where according to the legendary story, a prince named Mahasttva offered himself to the starving Tigress who had several underfed cubs. This legendary episode is depicted in a stone slab and placed right next to the holy stupa. We drive 38 kilometers, east of Kathmandu for about one and half hours to a place called Dhapasi via an ancient Newar town called Panauti with packed lunch boxes. From Dhapasi we follow the uphill trail forward to north - east direction and the trail narrows. We cross a suspension bridge and pass through many small villages to a huge rice field which will give you chance to see “How Nepali People plant and harvest the crops”. From here we hike steep uphill for about an hour to reach Namoboudha. After lunch we will continue walking on the trails to Dhulikhel and we drive back to Kathmandu or opt to stay for the night at Dhulikhel. This Panauti Namoboudha - Dhulikhel is an excellent day hike around Kathmandu to see rural village life and Buddhist pilgrimage. Total trip 6 to 8 hours
